

Clark County Quilters Press Release

PRESS RELEASE – August 2022

Clark County Quilters is proud to present their 47th Annual Regional Quilt and Fiber Arts Show, QuiltFest Northwest, October 20-21-22, 2022 at the Clark County Event Center, 17402 Delfel Rd., Ridgefield, WA.

Themed “Sunshine & Roses,” the show will feature over 300 quilts created by the members of the Guild, along with special exhibits and events, challenge quilts, a vendor mall, the “Diana” Cherrywood traveling exhibit, the Fort Vancouver Tapestry, and much more.

This year’s featured exhibit shows quilts made by members of the talented Felida Friends small quilt group.

Sunflowers for Ukraine is a sale of small quilts with proceeds to World Central Kitchen’s relief efforts in Ukraine.

Each day a Quilt of Valor will be presented to honor a local veteran, and examples of Quilts of Valor will be on exhibit. Veterans and active duty military personnel are encouraged to attend, and will receive a military discount admission.

“Quilters have spent many hours designing, fabric shopping, sewing by machine and by hand to produce beautiful quilts. These quilts are made to be used and loved or displayed as beautiful works of art,” said Marie Cook, QuiltFest NW co-chair. “Clark County Quilters has a been producing an amazing show each year, and this one should be as amazing as in years past.”

ADMISSION: Doors open 10 am to 4 pm each day. $8 per day/$15 3-day pass. Military discount. Free for children under 12. Parking $6 cash or card

For more details: www.quiltfestnw.org

www.clarkcountyquilters.com

www.quiltfestnw.org

Clark County Quilters is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization in Vancouver, Washington founded in 1974. While the Guild has grown significantly over the years, the vision and purpose remains the same. The Guild promotes quilting education through speakers and workshops; supports the community through charity; and encourages friendships and fellowship among our members.

Membership dues are $40 per year. The Guild general meetings are the second Thursday evening at 7 pm except December and January. Social hour at 6 pm. Hybrid meetings can be accessed via Zoom or in person at Trinity Lutheran Church, 309 W. 39th Street in downtown Vancouver. Email ccq-info@clarkcountyquilters.com for the Zoom link. Meetings include opportunities to get involved by volunteering, including piecing, quilting and binding quilts for charity; and participating in the monthly and periodic activities. Comfort Quilts makes and donates over 500 quilts annually to non-profit organizations in the community. The Guild presents QuiltFest NW, a regional quilt and fiber arts show, annually in October.

For more information, visit www.clarkcountyquilters.com or www.quiltfestnw.org, or email ccq-info@clarkcountyquilters.com for meeting information.

Contacts:

Marie Cook
Quiltfest NW chair
marie.cook@clarkcountyquilters.com
541-207-6362 (personal, not for publication)

Pat Stephens
Publicity Chair
Pat.stephens@clarkcountyquilters.com
360-513-0754 (personal, not for publication)

Clark County Quilters
PO Box 5857
Vancouver, WA 98668
www.clarkcountyquilters.com